

The New York
Academy of Medicine

At the heart of urban health since 1847

RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS IN THE LIBRARY

The New York Academy of Medicine offers two fellowships to support work in history and the humanities as they relate to health, medicine, and the biomedical sciences:

The Paul Klemperer Fellowship in the History of Medicine for scholarly study of the history of medicine, using the collections of the New York Academy of Medicine Library

The Audrey and William H. Helfand Fellowship in the Medical Humanities for scholarly research in a humanistic discipline, fiction, visual or performing arts, or biography and memoir, as they relate to medicine and health

Each Helfand or Klemperer Fellow receives a stipend of $5,000 to support travel, lodging and incidental expenses for a flexible period between June 1, 2009 and May 31, 2010. Our selection committee, comprising prominent historians and medical humanities scholars, will choose both fellows from a common pool of applications. We invite applications from anyone, regardless of citizenship, academic discipline, or academic status.
